Mandara Spa Announces Agreements to Operate Spas at Hulhule Island Hotel and Madifushi Private Island, Maldives.

July 30, 2020 ... Mandara Spa today announced it has entered into two new agreements to operate spa facilities at the Hulhule Island Hotel and Madifushi Private Island in the Maldives. The hotels are owned and operated by Maldives Inflight Catering.

The spas are scheduled to commence operation in the first quarter of 2021. Mandara Spa's signature treatments will be featured at both resorts, with spa facilities including single and couples' treatment rooms, steam and sauna facilities, relaxation area and retail boutique.

Hulhule Island Hotel is located on Male international airport island, offering modern facilities to guests on leisure or business. The hotel features 136 rooms with panoramic views and is complemented with a wide range of amenities, recreational, meeting and events facilities and a host of dining options to suit everyone.

Madifushi Private Island is a 16-hectre island located in Meemu Atoll, just 35 minutes by seaplane from Male International Airport. The resort offers spacious villas and suites with terraces that leads to private pools with access to the beach or perched over the Indian Ocean. Set against turquoise seas, immaculate white sand beaches and lush palm trees the resort is scheduled to open late 2020.
