MANDARA SPA ANNOUNCES THE OPENING OF A NEW SPA FACILITY AT ADAARAN PRESTIGE VADOO, MALDIVES.

March 9, 2020, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia... A new Mandara Spa has opened at Adaaran Prestige Vadoo, Maldives.

Taking advantage of its peaceful, soothing surroundings, Mandara Spa is situated over water; featuring a dedicated reception and retail area, two double rooms with shower, one double room with bath and a relaxation deck overlooking the ocean.

The Spa menu includes Mandara's signature body treatments and spa packages offering a combination of massages, traditional body scrubs and facials using fresh ingredients prepared daily. ELEMIS Spa-therapies, from the luxury British spa and skincare brand, invite guests to indulge in results-driven treatments using superior ingredients combined with scientific solutions for skincare concerns.

“We are very pleased to continue our collaboration with Adaaran Resorts in the Maldives and to provide our guests with exceptional spa services at a fantastic new location and spa facility”, said Trent Munday, Senior Vice President – International of Mandara Spa Asia Limited.”

Adaaran Prestige Vadoo is situated 8km northwest of the capital city, Male and easily accessed from the international airport via speedboat, a swift 15-minute trip in the southerly scenic direction. The luxury resort offers 50 water villas, each located atop turquoise waters, offering exclusive, unrestricted access to the vast Indian Ocean.
